Shorter programs (short programs, certificates, specialized graduate diplomas), qualifying coursework, non-degree studies, and postdoctoral studies are also eligible.

Anyone with visiting student status is not eligible.

Eligibility criteria

- Current student at Université Laval
- Currently in a precarious financial situation
- Unable to further reduce expenses or increase income
- Budget deficit
- No longer able to meet basic needs
- Studies compromised by the precarious financial situation
- Be in charge of a child aged 12 and under
- Not having received a bursary from a major granting agency (CRSH, FRQSC, PCBF) in their current study program

Comments

- Your student financial assistance file from the Ministère de l'Enseignement supérieur may be checked, and additional documents may be requested in order to fully understand your situation.
- We encourage you to take a look at the My finances section of our website, where you can find tools to help you improve your financial health.

Note that bursary holders are invited to the scholarship ceremony of the Faculty of Educational Sciences.

Submitting the file

- The Student Awards and Financial Aid Office team will support students in precarious financial situations in their search for short- and medium-term solutions.
- To that end, you need to fill in the information request form and select the budget support option:

INFORMATION REQUEST

- Please note that the bursary for precarious financial situation is only granted if no other solution can be found to allow the student to recover financially and continue their studies.
